the company, the Board of Directors must keep a list of these relationships and at least once a year assess whether it is still appropriate to maintain the employment relationships of the related parties.
2. The duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors
2.1. The Committee recommends that the Board of Directors be composed of competent board members with relevant experience for the individual company (e.g., experience from a listed company, experience with internationalisation, business development, financial matters, etc.) and that the board's overall competence cover the company's needs.	Compliant
2.2. The Committee recommends that the Chair of the	Compliant financing structure and opportunities, while retaining existing and attracting new shareholders in order to achieve the desired shareholder structure.

2.8. The Committee recommends that the company has a contingency procedure for takeover attempts that contains a "roadmap" for the matters that the Board of Directors should consider and decide on if a takeover bid has been made or the Board of Directors has a reasonable suspicion that a takeover bid may be made. This is particularly relevant if the market value of the company's shares is significantly below the company's own valuation of the company's value.	Non-compliant	The shareholdings of the Board of Directors and Senior management accounts for a substantial part of the total number of shares in the company. Any takeover bid will thus need a formal approval and endorsement of the Board of Directors and the Executive management.

2.9. The Committee recommends that the Board of Directors approves a policy for the company's corporate social responsibility, including social responsibility and sustainability, and that the policy is available in the management report and/or on the company's website.	Compliant		Wirtek has published an ESG-baseline in the 2023 annual report and will continue reporting on ESG.	Wirtek plans on publishing a sustainability policy in 2025 combining the CSR and ESG activities of the company group.
2.10. The Committee recommends that the board prepares an annual wheel in which the individual responsibilities are incorporated and that the annual wheel is evaluated annually.	Compliant		Wirteks Board of Directors operates on the basis of a comprehensive annual wheel ensuring compliance with laws, soft law and rules and enables continuous compliance improvements.

Recommendation	Company complies	The company's explanation and plans
		Why	How	Plans
2.11. The Committee recommends that the Board of Directors at least once a year evaluates the ongoing reporting and decides on the content, format, and frequency.	Compliant		Wirtek has over the last few years improved the financial reporting substantially. The Board of Directors continuously evaluates the reporting structure.
3. Remuneration of management
3.1. The Committee recommends that share-based incentive programs be market-compliant, including that they are revolving, i.e., with periodic allocation, and are primarily long-term with an accrual or maturation period of at least three years.	Compliant		All share-based incentive programs are described in detail in the annual reports, and all existing incentive programs are revolving and long-term.
3.2. The Committee recommends that the variable part of the remuneration has a ceiling at the time of award and that there is transparency about	Non-compliant	The current shares-based incentive programs aimed at employees and
